4:28 PM me: yo yo Mark: hey me: thanks again for looking that over, going to edit it up a bit Mark: cool, no problem me: my first Skeptical Inquirer column is up also deals with what I incorrectly term information theory http://www.csicop.org/specialarticles/show/internet_and_the_republic_of_skepticism_part_one 4:29 PM I met with the editor of New York Observer, can't remember if I mentioned they want me to do a bunch of articles attacking various people Mark: that's a curious beat 4:30 PM not a bad gig, though me: they pay ridiculous amounts I don't know how much exactly but they've got one of the wealthiest demographics of all pubs and of course they print on pink paper which I like because I am a homosexual 4:31 PM sorry, I meant to say JEW York Observer was a typo
Mark: right'
4:32 PM me: oh, you need to join OK Cupid Mark: what's that? me: free online dating site I joined a couple weeks back so did Josh 4:33 PM I am now seeing a girl from Trinidad who works in some high capacity at TED went on a date last night with a black chick got another date tonight with a mere white chick about to set up a date with another white chick who's in real estate had sex with some other white chick two weekends back 4:34 PM and am in negotiations with a couple others, including a hot Vietnamese chick who also works as a writer and editor Mark: i guess it's good you're getting something out of the internet other than information me: Josh is similarly employed everything is information the big bang was an informational event

4:35 PM thus me having sex with black chicks is also information TOO MUCH information, amirite?
